

EMERGENCY COLOUR CODES IN AUSTRALIAN HOSPITALS

RECOGNISE THE CODE • TAKE ACTION • PROTECT LIVES

CODE
RED

FIRE OR SMOKE

Fire, smoke or fire-alarm activation.
Evacuate if instructed and follow fire procedures.

CODE
BLUE

MEDICAL EMERGENCY

Cardiac arrest or other urgent medical deterioration.
Assist if trained and follow
clinical emergency procedures.

CODE
PURPLE

BOMB THREAT

Threatened or suspected explosive device.
Remain calm and follow
evacuation or lockdown instructions.

CODE
YELLOW

INTERNAL EMERGENCY

Power, water, gas, ICT or medical gas failure, flooding, structural damage, hazardous material spill or trapped persons.
Follow instructions and conserve resources where required.

CODE
BLACK

PERSONAL THREAT

Aggressive person, assault, robbery,
armed hold-up or illegal occupancy.
Move to safety and follow
lockdown procedures.

CODE
BROWN

EXTERNAL EMERGENCY

Major transport or industrial accident,
natural disaster, infectious outbreak
or terrorism.
Follow instructions and monitor
official updates.

CODE
ORANGE

EVACUATION

Partial or complete movement
from an unsafe area.
Evacuate via the safest route
as directed.

INTERNAL

EXTERNAL

000

MOBILE

112

TOGETHER WE CREATE A SAFER HOSPITAL ENVIRONMENT